

BRENNAN M.

Passionate, Sarcastic, Interest-Driven

"Doing the right thing at all costs is an absolute, and only a Sith deals in absolutes."

- Dave Filoni

BIOGRAPHY

Brennan is a smart, passionate young man who enjoys dark-humor. When he sets himself to a task, he is able to produce high-quality work without fail. His passions include history and scouting, and he is a self-described "bottomless well of random trivia." Brennan has no issues standing up in front of a crowd, whether to present or to perform. He has gained experience in this both from the 49ers STEM Leadership Institute, but also from his time in the Scouts BSA (formerly known as Boy Scouts of America), his single largest extracurricular activity. Brennan has been involved in scouting since the second grade and has continued all the way through his senior year. He has staffed multiple camps in the last two years and attended both the 2017 National Scout Jamboree and the 2019 World Scout Jamboree. He considers these the highlights of his scouting career. In his free time, Brennan enjoys watching videos on YouTube and playing video games with strategy and historical themes.
