

VAREYAR "REY" V.

Reliable, Resourceful, Caring

"Lightning makes no sound until it strikes."

- Martin Luther King, Jr

BIOGRAPHY

As a person who enjoys building meaningful relationships and making an impact in other people's lives, Rey frequently helps the local and regional communities, by volunteering at youth camps, homeless shelters, and other nonprofit organizations such as YWAM (San Francisco), Sacred Heart Community Center, and Redwood Glen. Additionally, he travels to India every year to tutor children in a slum in New Delhi as well as an orphanage in Manipur. When he isn't spending his time helping others, you will almost certainly find Rey spending time at home alone playing Minecraft or hanging out with his school friends. To him, finding a healthy work-life balance is essential; spending time away from work and having fun is fundamental to living a satisfying life and to discovering who he is.
