

Emmy N.

Driven, Passionate, Kind

For me, becoming isn't about arriving somewhere or achieving a certain aim. I see it instead as forward motion, a means of evolving, a way to reach continuously toward a better self. The journey doesn't end.

— Michelle Obama

BIOGRAPHY

During her time in the 49ers STEM Leadership Institute (SLI), Emmy has discovered her passion in design and innovation through technology. She hopes to pursue a career that allows her to exercise her creativity. Through SLI, Emmy has honed her skills in design thinking and problem solving and has grown in the program's core values, especially collaboration and communication.

Throughout her journey in SLI, she has become an outspoken, and compassionate leader who aims to make a difference in her community and for those around her. In her time at SCHS, Emmy has served as Sophomore Class Secretary Treasurer and Associated Student Body Secretary. She is currently serving as Events Coordinator, organizing rallies and other school events. Emmy also serves on the officer board for community service clubs on campus belonging to non-profit organizations such as Interact Rotary, where she collaborates on projects to create change and discover the power of service about self, and Best Buddies, where she forms relationships and aims to empower students with disabilities.

Emmy has been on the SCHS Girl's volleyball team since her Freshman year. In her free time, you can find her advocating for social issues, painting, creating digital art, and doing yoga.

